Guidelines on protection and exploitation of Intellectual Property Rights emanated from the collaborative Research Programme of CEFIPRA

Preamble:

Indo-French Centre for the Promotion of Advanced Research (CEFIPRA) is India’s first and France’s only bilateral organization, committed to promote collaboration between the scientific communities of the two countries across the knowledge innovation chain. The Centre was established in 1987 with the support from the Department of Science & Technology, Government of India and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Government of France. The governments of both the countries wish that the rights of the intellectual property resulting from the joint research should be duly protected. Accordingly these guidelines have been laid down with the objective of developing the scientific and technical cooperation between the collaborators of the two countries.

Before starting the project, the partners shall jointly prepare an Intellectual Property management plan and submit it to CEFIPRA after duly signed by the all the partners & head of all the institutes / Industries. The Intellectual property Management Plan may be jointly modified later if needed. Each partner shall be free to determine the sharing of the rights, interest and royalties as well as the liabilities between itself and its employees as per the legislation and practices applicable to the said partner. The model Agreement for Intellectual Property management plan for Collaborative Scientific Research programme and Industry- Academia Research & Development Programme is in Annexure-I and Annexure-II. Both the annexure-I & annexure-II are model templet. Collaborator may modify it according to their need by following these guidelines.

1.0 Scope and Objectives:

1.1 These guidelines are applicable to the intellectual property arising from the collaborative research projects supported by CEFIPRA and jointly carried out by the partners.

1.2 These guidelines define the modalities of protecting and exploiting the intellectual property and allocating the rights, interests and royalties among the partners.

1.3 The partners are bound by the provisions of these Guidelines.

1.4 The Agreement for Intellectual Property Management Plan for Collaborative Scientific Research programme and Industry- Academia Research & Development Programme shall be based on the provisions of this Guideline.

2.0 Definitions: In this Guidelines, unless the context otherwise requires,-
2.1 “CEFIPRA” means Indo-French Centre for the Promotion of Advanced Research, also known as Centre Franco-Indien pour la Promotion de la Recherche Avancée-registered as a society under the Indian Societies Registration Act, 1860, having its registered Office at B, Ground Floor, India Habitat Centre, Lodhi Road, New Delhi-110003, India.

2.2 “programme” means the Collaborative Scientific Research programme and Industry-Academia Research & Development Programme

3.0 Modalities of Securing and Maintaining Intellectual property Rights

3.1 The rights of intellectual property arising from the collaborative project shall be in principle, the joint property of the partners. In respect of each result which is to be protected, the partner shall decide the modalities of protecting the rights and prepare necessary document in mutual consultation with each other.

3.2 Without prejudice to the law of the country of each partner, the application for securing the rights of the intellectual property is to be made in the names of the partners.

The first application for securing the rights of the Intellectual Property, particularly for the patents should preferably be made under the procedure of the Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT), to get the benefit of the period described therein, during which the priority is protected in the member countries of the PCT.

In case the partners decide not to file the application in India and/ or France, the reason shall be intimated to CEFIPRA.

Usually the first filing is made in the country where invention was performed. The other partner may, in turn, file in its own country.

The list of third states in which must be carried out other filing is determined by mutual agreement between the partners.

In the event that one partner cannot or does not wish to file application, the other partner will give him in return a non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free license.

3.3 Within one month from the date of the filling of application the partner shall forward all the copies of application along with all documents to the other partner(s). The details of such application and the grant and maintenance of the rights shall also be intimated to one another as and when become available.

3.4 The partners shall forward to details of application to CEFIPRA for information. Further the partners shall forward to CEFIPRA details of application, if any relating to the same or substantially the same subject matter of the project filed after the completion of the project.

3.5 In all such application, the persons who have directly contributed intellectual inputs, shall be mentioned as inventors by the partners.

4.0 Commercial Exploitation of Intellectual Property Rights

4.1 The partner shall take all necessary steps for the commercial exploitation of the rights obtained, to the fullest possible extent that is reasonably practicable, without undue delay. They shall jointly determine the modalities of commercialization of the intellectual property protected in the concerned countries.

4.2 If any partner (s) has/ have the capacity to commercially exploit the rights of intellectual property by itself / themselves, such partner (s) will have the right to preemption. The period of such exploitation will be decided mutually by the partners.
